Domestic consumption drives Vietnam's ceramic demand

Vietnam is the hot market in ASEAN for ceramic growth and production. Vietnam has a diverse scope of industry largely serving the tile export markets and domestic sanitaryware demands where currently domestic demand surges for ceramic tile, sanitaryware and roof tiles.

Vietnam's ceramic tile production exceeded 753.50 million m<sup>2</sup> in 2018 and sanitaryware production surpassed 24.75 million pieces with a high level of domestic demand rapidly expanding to support this with total consumption reaching almost 18 million pieces.

Consequently Vietnam is experiencing a high demand for international machinery, technology innovations and material supply with VIETNAM Ceramics the only international platform for the ceramic manufacturing industry.
